Summer Recap

What a whirlwind of a summer! The Lord was hard at work in all of our teens as they adventured through North Georgia, conferenced in Orlando, worked through local non-profits in Jacksonville, and served our neighbors in Interlachen with strength and humility. We heard resounding messages of Radiant Hope, what it means to be consumed by God, and that through our service for others we are serving the Lord and further building our relationship with Him. Amen!

Please enjoy a snippet of pics from our summer throughout this week's newsletter and be sure to read the summary of summer by our very own MC Knox on pg.3.

A word from one of our seniors ...

Hi! My name is MaryClaire Knox and I was blessed to spend my fourth summer with AYM. This summer I was fortunate enough to attend Camp Covecrest, Steubenville, and Urban Plunge!

For me, this summer was about rebuilding my relationship with God and deepening my sense of community. A theme that I felt was present for all of us was the call to become completely consumed by our relationship with God not just during the summer, but in the everyday moments throughout the year.

I go to these camps not only to learn more about God, but to discover how to live out my faith in my daily life. Part of that has been learning who I want by my side, the people who will walk with me through challenges, who encourage me, and who push me to grow as we step into new chapters of our life's. These experiences have helped me uncover more of who I am as the person God created me to be, and the path He is calling me to follow. The foundation I gain each summer prepares me for the school year ahead. I return with a stronger relationship with God that helps me face the anxiety of the first week of school, along with a community that I know lifts me up in prayer every day.

The relationships we build over the summer make it easier to turn to one another in the difficult moments at school those times when it feels like no one else understands.

I am so thankful I was able to experience this summer with AYM. Thank you for your continued prayers and support of our community. I can't wait to see you all again soon!
