COME PRAY
WITH US

Our Edge group before “stargazing”

Edge stayed busy Sunday night, playing a Marian twist on Ships & Sailors, before heading into an evening activity of “stargazing.” They wrote personal intentions on paper stars, walked around the room gazing and praying for others’ intentions and even took some (that didn’t belong to them) to take home and continue praying. #powerful

Thanks Mitchell!

Senior witness:

Mitchell is a member of JPPII in Nocatee, but he has a personal witness of his experience at a Christian school back in KY. Mitchell, a non-practicing Catholic, was given the debate task to argue the truth of transubstantiation. He was poised by the school and administration to be on the losing side and the debate was popularized encouraging other students to come watch him “lose.” What happened instead was conversions, to include within Mitchell’s own family. His classmates began attending Adoration at local Catholic Churches, weeping and being converted by the Holy Spirit. Now, having moved to Florida, we had the honor of hearing his testimony for the first time, before we too spent some time in Adoration. Christ is Alive in the young church!

Thank you Mitchell!

Make sure to check out our website to register for the Fall Festival! AYM is responsible for the popcorn and sno-cone booth, and we would love your assistance! We are offering double service hours!

Bayou Bash 2026

Join us in making a difference at the annual Bayou Bash fundraiser on January 31, 2026! This crucial event supports our parish youth ministry and is the sole opportunity for teens to earn funds for their summer camp and conference fees. Our goal every year is to reduce costs for each teen and cover rising expenses like buses. We need your help to make this event a success—whether it's selling tickets, securing sponsorships, or donating your time and money. Your support can also help offset costs for essentials like alcohol, food, and the DJ. Check out the bulletin and our website for more details, and consider making your end-of-year donations to AYM: Bayou Bash. Together, we can create unforgettable experiences for our youth!

Covecrest Dates Announced

July 27 - August 1, 2026

We have been awarded Week 9 of Covecrest and we are almost full already!

We will need some adults to volunteer to chaperone - contact Jenn if this is something that interests you.

If you have signed up online via the summer sign-up link on the website, but you haven't paid your deposit, then please note that you do have a spot on the trip and it can be taken by someone else.

If you have paid and you can't attend because of these dates, you have 2 weeks from today to request a refund of your deposit.
